Rick and Jim,

I think you are on the same page – let me be more specific. As of last Thursday, April 28, the closing date values were stated as:

Use A/R $1,150,000 and cash $480,000.

So, do you two agree that the above amounts are the amounts Jim (Daws, Inc.) will keep?

All,

Good morning. As stated in my earlier email this morning, I will revise the SPA to reflect the LLC and not a corp – and the APA provisions referencing the same.

The key item we do not want to change in the volley of items is that the cash and A/R as of this date of closing is that those (cash in bank and A/R on books) stay with Daws, Inc – stay with Jim. If any of you view this differently, please let em know immediately (or if you planned to revise the drafts in that manner).

Other than that, we are "good" with the pending transaction.

Thanks Rick.

For the Nebraska Titles that are being transferred from Daws Inc. to Jim Daws Trucking LLC (all titles will need to be in Jim Daws Trucking LLC), we will need to gather all physical titles and will file our liens electronically via Vintek; all Illinois physical titles will be needed as well.

We are working on our drafts of the loan documents and will send out to the group for review. In addition, we will try to provide a loan timeline that will include details on what items/tasks that need to be completed prior to funding the loan.

Let me know if you have any questions. Thanks.

△ EXTERNAL MESSAGE – Think Before You Click

I try to edit below and it did let me.

1) On the issue of the Titles last time we did this many..Jim has all if his titles and I have most of mine we can just sign them and the Bank can hold on to them . That's been done before unless the bank sells the loan.

I think turn around time with SOS of Nebraska may take a while.

2) On the $250,000.00 additional hold back .

It was a timing thing for me. We just got hit heavier taxes than I thought .. I have already forwarded $750,000 to Jim last week and probably am going to send another $100,000 within the next couple of weeks..

So it should be a non issue soon.

3) relating to the $2million liability that Jim has on equipment has mostly been paid , what ever is not settled will be cleared shortly after closing. Those loans are with local banks and they have been advised.

4) In regards to UCC1 the inventory as per APA is transferred. The A/R is 100% owned by Daws and will collected and transferred over to Jim Daws Trucking. It is my understanding that the A/R is not factored or being drawn against an LOC.

There should not be any exciting UCCs but

Jim can you confirm please. Sometimes banks forgeto release UCCs on old purchases.

5) I just spoke to Attorneys and Accountants both have valid arguments why the 338 election would not be beneficial.

Added legal work, but accountants stated that the 338 election would not allow RDT income to offset against depreciation losses since Daws is an Inc. And possible legacy liabilities with stock purchase.

All:

The UBT loan details are as follows:

- "Truck Loan"
 - $3.5M, 4-year full amortization at 3.89%
- "Trailer Loan"
 - $3.5M, 7-year full amortization at 4.29%
- Full Subordination agreement on the carryback note, minimum financial performance prior to junior credit payments; Rick has the full commitment letters if needed
- Loan documentation is in progress
- Let me know if you need additional information regarding the loans

In discussions with Rob, we have the following questions regarding the Purchase Agreement and Carryback Note:

- Who is handling the transfer of titles from Daws Incorporated name to Jim Daws Trucking LLC name? Is the goal to have UBT's liens noted at the same time?
 - This will need to be done prior to UBT funding so we can properly file our liens on the respective vehicles/trailers
- What is the $250k carryback note for? I had in my original notes that the only carryback note was for $4.0M.
- Per the draft APA; the existing debt of approx. $2.0M is going to be Jim's responsibility, correct? Just confirming this item.
 - Will that debt be immediately retired?
 - We are filing a UCC1 on all business assets to be purchased under Jim Daws Trucking LLC and I need to be sure to have first lien on all A/R and Inventory, when and how will existing UCCs be terminated?
- One additional thought/question. Was there consideration to doing this transaction as a stock purchase with a 338 election to treat as an asset purchase for tax purposes? Might avoid some sales taxes on transfer of the vehicles, make it easier to transfer id numbers etc.? Just a thought has as we have seen more of those deals recently.

Thanks everyone, please let Rob or I know if you have any questions/comments.

Clay,

I have been able to do an initial review and the main open issue I see that I have been awaiting your response is to the UBT loaned amount – I can prepare the note, but you indicated there are particular terms needed. I need the amort schedule at a minimum for this loan. What is the term (years) and other specifics as I have indicated in my comments on the working draft. Please provide. All – is the PN form used for the seller financed PN acceptable for the larger loan? I may add more, but I have been waiting to hear from Clay and/or UBT with what may need to appear in the Note for the larger amount due.

Thank you. Any other revisions will be minor. This is the big piece I have been awaiting.

Julie-can you take a look at the attached draft of the APA and confirm the changes are acceptable? I think the only question left that I need from your side is what level the assets will be insured to prior to closing.

All;

I spoke with Rick earlier today regarding the transaction and wanted to touch base with everyone with all the moving parts of the acquisition and timing of loan documents.

I have cc'd Rob Shortridge on this email, he is our Bank Counsel and will be completing all loan documents. In our discussions, the effective date of the acquisition can remain as 5/1/22. With that said, funding will not occur that same day as loan documents will be in draft copy at that time. We will plan to fund and close the loan as quickly as possible after the effective date but we need to have all final documents (purchase agreements, carryback notes, titles, etc) prior to finalizing and producing loan documents.

Clay and Julie, please feel free to coordinate with Rob to get the appropriate documents to the finish line and we can work together to get this transaction completed. I mentioned to Rick that the rate we quoted within our commitment letters will remain valid.

Thanks everyone, let me know if you have any questions.
